

Glocal

MA in International Development

“ The Glocal program stands as the essence of the academic and social mission of the university. It brings together all the different meanings of “Tikun Olam”.

Prof. Menahem Ben-Sasson. Former President,
The Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

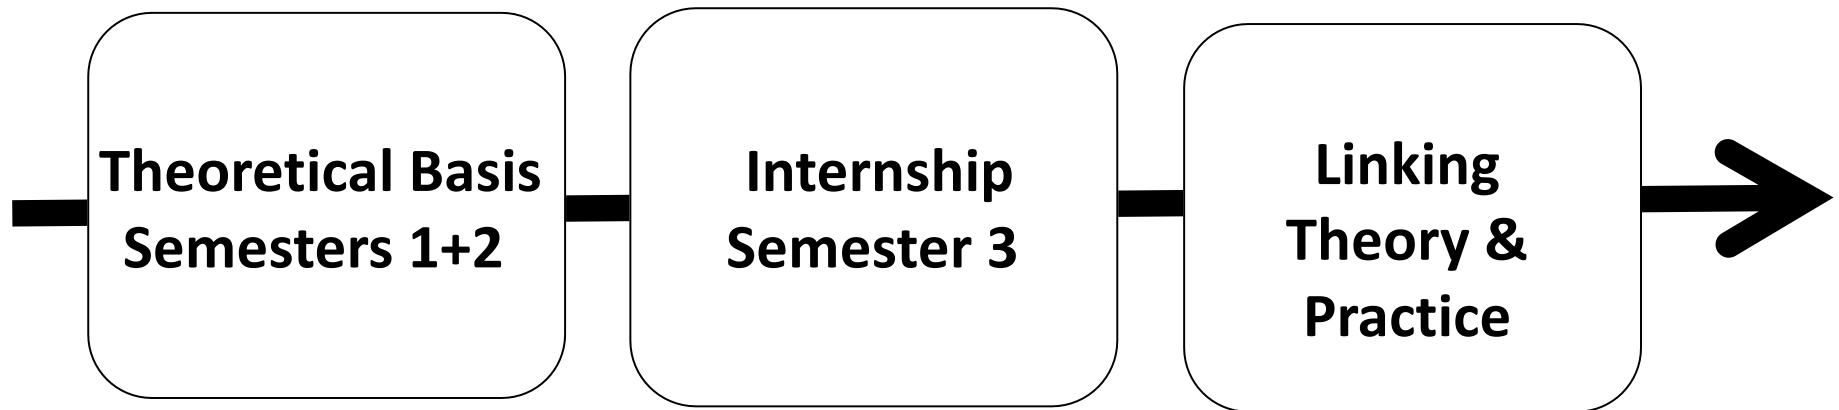

Focusing on inclusive development

- To ensure sustainable outcomes, we focus on building development interventions with the local people
- Students receive both academic knowledge and practical tools focusing on multicultural work and cultural sensitivity
- The highlight of the program is 4 months internships with organizations which work with communities around the world

Program structure

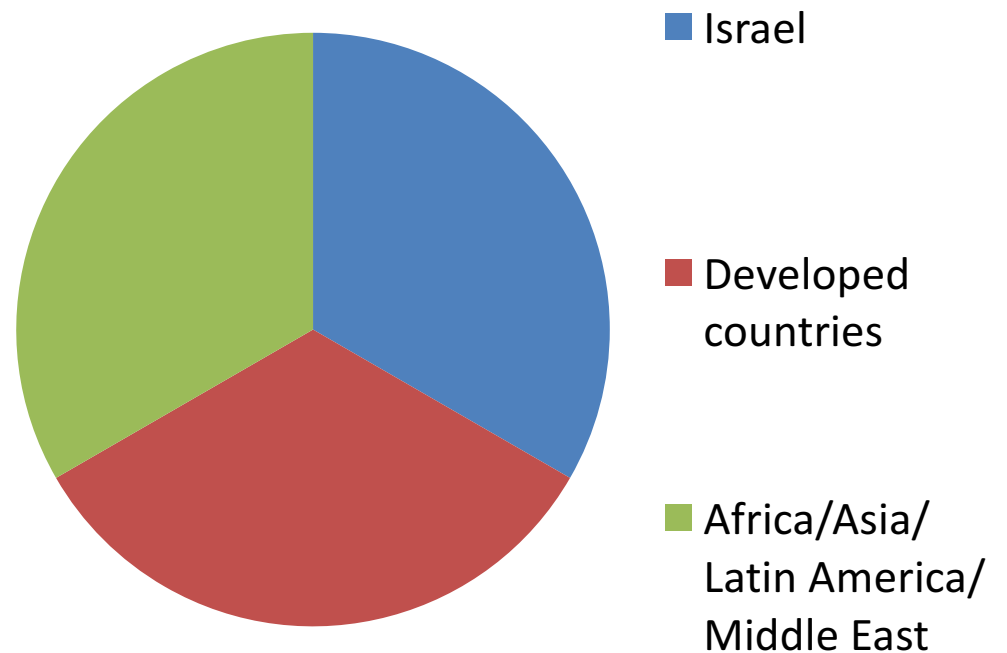

Fields of study

- Environment
- Gender and women empowerment
- Working with youth
- Entrepreneurship
- Social innovation
- Community development
- Economics

Glocal student body

- Glocal students come from a variety of backgrounds and regions
- Students learn from each other and not only lecturers or academic sources

Glocal Internship

More about our alumni

Glocal today and tomorrow

- Starting the 9th year of operation
- More than 60 partner organizations for students' internships
- Diverse courses and workshops, including online components and field trips
- Includes a new MA research track
- Advancing specialization tracks

Thank you

